19 Oct. 1849

I Robert Campbell do most solemnly aver and affirm in the Presence of God and Angels that I heard A. W. Babbitt say that no pertaining to this interest of this Peoples, Alias Mormons measure could pass the Congress of the U.S. ~~because~~ without his Consent, for this reason that Stephen A Douglas Augustus C Dodge or pledged their Sacred Honours And others had Sworn to him that they would use all of their influence against any measure that should come before them in Congress pertaining to the People called "Latter day saints unless he should advise them of the same in writing bearing his signature Come up with his consent signature or approval *

A copy to be made out for Geo A Smith
Jas S Hayward to administer the entry and certify the same efficiency

* And further that President Young knew that he could not get along without him in relation to Governmental affairs hence his appointment to return to Washington City as Our Representative
