

Traveling Exhibit Program

GENERAL INFORMATION

Who may use the Traveling Exhibition Program?

Exhibits may be booked by museums, college and public galleries, community groups or institutions such as libraries, schools and other nonprofit organizations.

What about security for the exhibit?

Locations must be secured, well publicized and open to the public.

Who handles transportation and installation?

The Utah Division of Arts & Museums staff transports the exhibitions and provides professional installation (with the exception of professional museums and galleries).

What is the cost?

Exhibits are scheduled for approximately one month periods at $125.00 per exhibit, $100.00 for Title 1 Schools.

Are educational materials provided?

The mission of the Traveling Exhibition Program is to provide meaningful visual arts experiences. To help accomplish this goal, educational materials are included with each exhibition. The materials vary from exhibit to exhibit. Simply click on your exhibit (above) and you will find downloadable forms.

How should the exhibits be publicized?

Each exhibit includes a press release and a photograph for publicity purposes. A framed introductory text panel accompanies each exhibition. Feel free to advertise in your community the way you deem most effective.

How do I provide feedback to the regarding our exhibit?

You can call and email us anytime, or you can fill out a survey which is provided when the exhibit is at your venue.

If you have questions, please contact our coordinator:

Fletcher Booth
Traveling Exhibits Coordinator
801.201.1197 (cell)
fbooth@utah.gov