

ABRAMSVILLE LIBRARY PUBLIC BEHAVIOR POLICY

The Abramsville Library's Behavior Policy is intended to protect the rights and safety of library users and staff and to preserve and protect the library's materials, facilities and property. Library users who violate the rules will be asked to abide by the outlined rules or may be asked to leave the building. Excluding a patron from the library for a time period may be necessary.

A patron may appeal the exclusion to the Library Director or Board of Trustees who will review the circumstances of the case and may confirm, cancel, or change the exclusion.

Library users must adhere to the following rules:

- Smoking is not permitted
- Service animals are welcome
- Food and drink is only permitted at functions the librarian approves
- Cell phone conversations must be done in soft voices
- Please silence your cell phone
- Ear phones or head phones must be used with electronic equipment
- Bathing is not permitted in the public restrooms
- Verbal harassment, stalking, staring or inappropriate touching is not permitted
- Loud, boisterous or lewd behavior is not permitted
- Library property should be respected
- No offensive language
- Shirt and shoes must be worn
- Bikes, skateboards, scooters or roller blades are not permitted
- Sleeping is not allowed
- Complaints of strong body odor or perfumes will be handled by the librarian on a case-by-case basis
